SouTHE DREAM OF LOVE JIET BY GEORGE P. NORRIS.

Pyn had the heart-sche many times, At the mere mention of a mane I've never woren in my rhymes,
Though from it inspiration came.
It is in truth a holy thing,
Life-cherished from the world apart.
A dove that never tries its wing.
But broods and nestles in the heart.

That name of melody recalls

Her gentle look and wimning ways
Whose portrait hangs on Memory's walls,
In the food light of other days.
In the dream-land of Poetry,
Reclining in its leafy bowers,
Her bright eyes in the stars I see,
And her sweet semblance in the flowers.

Her artess dalliance and grace—
The joy that lighted up her brow—
The sweet expression of her face—
Her form—It stands before n e now!
And I can facey that I hear
The woodland songs she used to sing,
Which stole to my attending car,
Like the first harbingers of spring.

The beauty of the earth was hers, And hers the purity of heaven;
Alone, of all her worshippers,
To me her maiden yows were given.
They little know the human heart,
Who think such love with time expires;
Once kindled, it will ne'er depart,
But burn through life with all its fires.

We parted—doomed no more to meel—
The blow feel with a stunning power—
And yet my pulse will strangely beat
At the remembrance of that hour!
But time and clange their healing brought,
And years have passed in seeming glee,
But still alone of her I're thought
Who's now a memory to me. Who's now a memory to me.

There may be many who will deem
This strain a wayward, youthful folly,
To be derided at a dream
Born of the poel's melancholy.
The wealth of worlds, if it were mine,
With all that follows in its train,
I would with gratitude resign,
To dream that dream of love again.

ALEX. HEYMAN, No. 137 Main St. or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazzard of vital Strongth and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have need it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausca, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or any Billions Complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal.

Diarrho a, dy-entery or flux, so generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be specifily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Byspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be GRAND EXHIBITION Homes For All. THE AMERICAN EMIGRANT AND HOMESTEAD

COMPANY, having its headquarters in the City of New, York, has been organized for the sole and definite purpose of collecting information from all parts of the country wherein destrable lands may be had at loy prices, and commending those lands at the attention and favor of all who may be induced to purchase or improve them. It has been silently perfecting its arrangements and correspondence for more than a year past; until it is now ready to offer to settlers a range for solection, embracing more than One Million Acres of cheap will lands, with some improved farms, mainly in the States of Viginia, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Mis sour; and it will soon extend its operations into other States. Mis souri; and it will soon extend its operations into other States.

To emigrants from Europe, to the energetic young men of our compactly settled States and sections, to the hives of mechanics and laborers who throng our cities and live in constant and reasonable dread that panic or pestilence, war, revulsion, or some alteration in the channels of trade, may, at any noment; deprive them of employment and their families of bread, we say, resolve now, while you may, to seek a home where such perils are unknown.

We mean to sell lands, as well as negotiate for purchasers with those who have large tracts for sale, in every part of the Union; but our attention is more especially directed to the neighboring States—Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Missouri. Virginia especially proflers at this time remarkable inducements to immigrants. Her climate is temperate and genial—the Peach, the Apple, the Pear, the Grape, alike thrive in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science. FLYER AND ACUE.—This trying and provoking dis-case, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him to a mere shadow in a short time, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTET-TER'S RENOWNED BITTERS. Further, none of the the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per direc-tions. And as they neither create nausea nor oftend tha palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the produc-tion of a thorough and permanent cure.

For Persons in Advanced Foars, who are suffering from an enfeebled constitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother, while nursing, these Bitters are indispen-sable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good to inpart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before so doing, should ask their phy-sician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weak-ness.
